

PERSONAL NOTES

J. L. Clark was a Portland visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bassett, of Warren, is reported quite sick.

James Hunt spent several days in Portland this week.

John Johnson was in Portland on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. A. J. Denning was a Portland visitor on Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Meyer spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland.

County Superintendent, J. W. Allen, was a Portland visitor on Monday.

Bob Campbell, of Clatskanie, was attending Court in St. Helens early in the week.

Frank Brown, of Portland, was attending to business matters in St. Helens today.

Born, on Friday February 8, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conkle a daughter.

Sheriff Sunwood returned Friday night from an official visit to Astoria Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barth, of Junction, were staying in St. Helens last Monday.

J. G. Williamson, of Scappoose, returned to business in St. Helens early in the week.

Mrs. Eva Garrison, of Scappoose, spent Wednesday in St. Helens a guest of friends.

W. H. French, of Portland, was in St. Helens on Wednesday attending to legal business.

Mrs. Clara Cooper and son Eugene, College, left Saturday for their new home in San Francisco.

William E. Cowling, of Portland, was in St. Helens Thursday attending to business matters.

Williamson Soren, a Portland attorney, attended to legal business in St. Helens on Wednesday.

Mrs. Goodwin and her son Charles, student of Bachelder Hall, were in St. Helens on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans are visiting Mr. Evans' parents, F. D. Evans, in St. Helens this week.

Mr. Pierce, a lawyer of Portland, spent last Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Fred Granger, in St. Helens.

E. J. Burdette was in Portland on Tuesday of this week a witness in the case of Johnson vs. Peterson.

Mr. J. K. Rice, of Clatskanie, visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Burton of this place during the week.

Mrs. G. Walter Williams and children spent several days in Portland during the week with friends.

Moses Anna, Ethel, Sam Head and Leah Alexander spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. August Head.

Walter Gilard left last Tuesday for Forest Grove where he will enter the Senior year of preparatory school.

Miss Leona, Pauline, who is teaching school at Brookline, Wash., visited her home here a few days last week.

Mr. Dennis Reed of West St. Helens, left Sunday for California where he will work at the steel making business.

Joe Brinkman, the well known lawyer and notary of Warren, was transacting business in St. Helens last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Head and family of Brookline, visited at the home of Mr. Head's parents in the city, Mr. A. Head.

Mrs. William Knutle returned from Brookline where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Parks, of that place.

Mr. Peter McMurtry and family who have been in Portland for some time, have returned to St. Helens to reside. Mr. McMurtry was engaged in repair work on the steamer Santa Catalina.

Chairman E. Redford, president of the St. Helens Hill Company, spent several days during the past week visiting the various interests of the company at this place. Mr. Redford left today for San Francisco.

Miss Gladys Rose and Rev. Garrison entertained the Phillips Club at the Hotel's home on Thursday night. The evening was given over to music and games after which the young ladies served refreshments.

Colonel Charles Graham, of Portland, has been spending some time in California on a vacation and health improving trip. Mr. Graham has been making his headquarters at Warren. He is expected home in about a week.

Mrs. Herman Head, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in St. Helens last week and is visiting with her son Ed Head and other relatives. Mrs. Head visited with her son Herman of Aberdeen, Wash., and will return here to San Francisco to visit a daughter before returning to her home in Wisconsin.

LOCAL NEWS

A new ad in this issue is that of A. S. Harrison, on this page. Look it over.

Families not receiving our notices may have us by calling at the Columbia County Bank.

The divorce case of Turner vs. Turner, received the attention of Justice Balmer for a couple of days this week.

Another special sale is advertised by Neal's Art Store in this issue. Your special attention is called to this ad.

Inappropriate exercises are being held this afternoon in the St. Helens schools commemorating the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

An order was made in the juvenile court last Saturday afternoon for Barker A. Day, guardian of James M. and Samuel Day minors.

The usual Church Food Sale of the Congregational Ladies Aid will be held at the St. Helens Hardware Company store on Saturday February 26.

Little Blanche Davis, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Percy Davis, was severely injured at their home in this city last Tuesday by falling and striking her chin on some sharp edged piece of furniture.

Assessor C. W. Shattoley and his deputies are busily engaged in preparing for this year's assessment of property. Actual field work will begin shortly after the 1st of March, it is said.

Ed Ballagi went up to Portland last Tuesday and came home the next day proudly steering a new Ford car which he secured from the Independent Auto Company, of the city. It is as proud of this machine as he can be.

On last Saturday night the girls of the Congregational Sunday school entertained the Boy Scouts at the church. The evening was spent in games. The girls served the boys a splendid meal and the boys pronounced the affair a great success.

The Christian Endeavor Society honored a surprise party to Esther Williamson, at the F. J. Stewart home on Williamson street last week, before her departure for San Francisco. Music and games furnished the entertainment and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Ballou is president of the Christian Endeavor society, and is quite popular with the membership. He will be away about 2 months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Denning accompanied Rev. Chapman with a new fish dinner at their home in St. Helens last Wednesday evening. This was the second of the second anniversary of Mr. Chapman's association with the drug store owned by Mr. Denning. These present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blakely, Andrew King, John and Barbara Denning, Ray Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Denning.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The high school has begun on the third course under Dr. Smith's direction.

Last week Edward Tamm was unanimously elected president of the Student body.

Beginning with next week Charles Tamm will be the high school reporter for the next month.

The freshman basket ball team has readiness for challenging other teams, and as far as now always make winning scores.

Everyone is invited to attend a program in honor of Abraham Lincoln's birthday next Friday afternoon in the assembly.

On Wednesday Charles Smith, Leslie Smith and Eugene Denning were appointed on a committee to plan an entertainment for the high school.

The Physical Culture girls have had practice with Indian clubs, and are now beginning with dumb-bells, but they really seem to most enjoy the long walk that they take when the weather permits.

A week ago last Sunday Dr. Denning gave a recital in the high school auditorium, which was well attended by the towns people. The program was a success and was a credit to the instructor.

Last Monday night our Freshmen played against the Fusion School fusion ball team. In the first game, Dick Lewis was displayed in our team, for everyone in the building, except Miss June, yelled for Houston—but Houston failed to take advantage of the good feelings and calls, and lost the game 11 to 8.

The basketball team of the St. Helens High school was courteously received by Mr. S. C. Burton, of the St. Helens Lumber Company, last Friday and was given some very useful information about the keeping of books and accounts for a large concern like the S.H.C. Company. Prof. McMurtry and the class feel grateful for the kindness shown.

FLORA FOREMAN CASE
WON BY DISTRICT

The case of Flora Foreman against the Quincy School District was heard in the Circuit Court this week, with the result that a verdict was found for the defendant. Plaintiff did not ask for a judgment fine or costs in such a term of school in the district, which she was prevented from completing.

CRAFT OF THIEVES

To all those who so kindly gave their services during the sickness and death of my sister, Mrs. Clara Johnson, and for the beautiful floral offerings, I wish to extend my sincere thanks.

MR. AND MRS. NEIL CARLSON

MR. ERIN M. H. CHURCH

Sunday school 10:30 a. m. Classes for all. Public meetings 11:30 a. m. At this hour there will be a platform meeting, and a program rendered in honor of Lincoln and the freedom he fought for. This will be enjoyed by all who can be present.

Sports League 8:30 p. m. Leader, Edie Harton.

Evening service 7:30. Theme—Silver and gold, or Lawrence cured, which is better?

Everyone not having a church home elsewhere is invited to worship with us.

Good singing and special music.

P. H. BANCROFT, Pastor

CONGREGATIONAL NOTES

"A church home for friends and strangers."

Miss school at 10 a. m.

Public worship and service 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor service 1:30 p. m. Worship and service 7:30 p. m. "The Religion of Abraham Lincoln."

Midweek service Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

"Come then with us and we will be your good."

"The Religion of Abraham Lincoln," will be the subject which Rev. P. H. Meyer will present at the evening service next Sunday evening at Plymouth Congregational church.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES

FOR SALE—Four cows, all fresh meat, also a live press with capacity of 12 to 15 tons half horse power. E. G. Harrison, Warrenton.

Mr. Ballou is president of the Christian Endeavor society, and is quite popular with the membership. He will be away about 2 months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Denning accompanied Rev. Chapman with a new fish dinner at their home in St. Helens last Wednesday evening. This was the second of the second anniversary of Mr. Chapman's association with the drug store owned by Mr. Denning. These present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blakely, Andrew King, John and Barbara Denning, Ray Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Denning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans are visiting Mr. Evans' parents, F. D. Evans, in St. Helens this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Head and family of Brookline, visited at the home of Mr. Head's parents in the city, Mr. A. Head.

Mrs. William Knutle returned from Brookline where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Parks, of that place.

Moses Anna, Ethel, Sam Head and Leah Alexander spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. August Head.

Walter Gilard left last Tuesday for Forest Grove where he will enter the Senior year of preparatory school.

Miss Leona, Pauline, who is teaching school at Brookline, Wash., visited her home here a few days last week.

Mr. Dennis Reed of West St. Helens, left Sunday for California where he will work at the steel making business.

Joe Brinkman, the well known lawyer and notary of Warren, was transacting business in St. Helens last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Head and family of Brookline, visited at the home of Mr. Head's parents in the city, Mr. A. Head.

Mrs. William Knutle returned from Brookline where she has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Parks, of that place.

Miss Gladys Rose and Rev. Garrison entertained the Phillips Club at the Hotel's home on Thursday night. The evening was given over to music and games after which the young ladies served refreshments.

Colonel Charles Graham, of Portland, has been spending some time in California on a vacation and health improving trip. Mr. Graham has been making his headquarters at Warren. He is expected home in about a week.

Mr. Herman Head, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in St. Helens last week and is visiting with his son Ed Head and other relatives. Mrs. Head visited with her son Herman of Aberdeen, Wash., and will return here to San Francisco to visit a daughter before returning to her home in Wisconsin.

NOTES ON THE FAR

Deprivations of a more or less severe nature are being perpetrated by thoughtless, at least, and perhaps vicious individuals at the Charles Mackle farm near Bandon. The same kind of very chronic invasions, and will lead to real serious trouble for someone. We want to kindly admonish the perpetrators to cease their depredations.

ENGAGEMENT

The undersigned wish to announce to the people of St. Helens, Marion and Yamhill that they have taken over the St. Helens Dairy Milk route, having purchased the business from Bennett Bros., and will continue to deliver the best of milk and cream to the customers. We wish to thank our patrons for the liberal support already accorded us and promise to furnish only the best of Dairy Products, sanitary and fresh.

Hoppeley,

CARRE BROTHERS

Please Take Notice

That you can buy Ground Spices and Coffee at Harrison's Store cheaper than any store in the county. These Spices retail at 10c. and 15c. elsewhere. Guaranteed absolutely pure and 2 oz. size. If you are not buying them to hold in these prices or buy here.

Cayenne Pepper.

Black Pepper.

Mustard.

Ginger.

Allspice.

Cloves.

Cardamom.

5c. only

We have purchased a large amount of Spices direct from New York. SO WE BUY AND SELL FOR LESS.

Have a large consignment of Bulk Roast Coffee just arrived. Any quantity sold at 10c. per pound. See sample in window.

May we Save you Money on Sugar? It is up to you.

YOURS FOR BUSINESS

A.S. HARRISON & CO.

ST. HELENS, ORE.

Books! Books!
Books!

DEMING'S DRUG STORE

Rexall and Nyal Goods

JAS. MUCKLE & SON

"GOODS OF QUALITY"

PHONE NO. 2

BUTTERICK PATTERNS
NO. 343

Spring Announcement

Your attention is directed to our line of LADIES' SHIRTWAISTS, which are new and dainty in every particular and of many individual styles.

These Shirtwaists are distinguished from the ordinary kinds by the quality of goods used in their construction, and the superior workmanship with which they are made. In this lot are Waists of Lawn, Dobby, Organza and Silk, trimmed with the new pleatings, lace and fancy buttons, have long sleeves, and high or low collars. Made serviceable as well as stylish. Select one soon.

PRICES $1.25 TO $2.50

LODGES

ST. HELENS BAPTISTE LODGE No. 223, meets first and third Thursday of each month in L. O. P. Hall. Visiting members always welcome.

MRS. ELLA ALLEN, N. G.

MR. BENNETT, Sec.